SENATE ASKS FOR DATA ON MEAT MERGER

LaFollette Wins First Step In Fight Against Plan

By Associated Press
Washington—The senate Wednesday adopted the resolution of Senator LaFollette, calling upon the secretary of agriculture for full information regarding the proposed Armour and Morris meat merger.

"Neither the president nor Secretary Wallace of the department of agriculture," Senator LaFollette declared, "has any authority or right to give the approval requested by J. Ogden Armour for his purchase of the Morris interests."

"NOT SANCTIONED BY LAW"
"It hasn't yet reached the point in this country," he said, "where any law has been passed which authorizes the president to sell indulgence to law breakers. If he grants such indulgence, he must do it without the sanction of law."

Senator LaFollette made his assault on the merger in a speech calling for its resolution of inquiry which asks Secretary Wallace for complete and detailed information regarding the merger negotiations. If the president should give the opinion to these makers that their proposed merger was lawful, said the Wisconsin senator, such an executive action would be tantamount to promising that the courts would take no proceeding either to prevent the combination or to interfere against it.

"CITIES STEEL MERGER"
Senator LaFollette revealed that a recently proposed steel merger was abandoned when the federal trade commission filed a complaint that the combine would result in unfair competition.

"One of the most dangerous and wicked practices which has grown up in our day is that by which great corporations go either to the president or the heads of departments and make a bargain in advance for immunity for crimes they are about to commit."

TEMPERATURE DROPS 6 BELOW ZERO IN N. D.

By Associated Press
Chicago—Still holding the north-west in a gripping grip of sub-zero temperatures, winter continued its belated advance Wednesday into the southland causing marked drops in temperature as far south as Texas, and rallying forth predictions of colder weather in the lake region, the great central valley and the east gulf states.

In the upper lake region, the zero and sub-zero weather was accompanied by a 60 mile wind driving before it a snowstorm that practically tied up shipping. Reports indicated that the cold wave still centered in North Dakota. Havre and Williston, N. D., recorded the coldest temperature in the country Tuesday night, the mercury going past six below zero.

Temperatures in the west central states ranged from 4 degrees below at Devils Lake, Wis., to 26 degrees above at Dodge City, Kan.

Olson died from the effects of gas when he descended into the shaft to rescue Vestin, who was digging the well. The bodies were recovered later by neighbors, who wore gas masks. A double funeral will be held Friday.

POWERS PROPOSE PLAN FOR STRAITS

Would Appoint International Commission To Take Charge Of Waterway

By Associated Press
Lansanne—The entente plan for keeping open the straits of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus in time of peace and war provides for the appointment of an international commission of control composed of the great powers, including the United States as well as Turkey and the countries bordering on the black sea. Lord Curzon of Great Britain in the name of the Allies presented the details of this comprehensive project to the Near East conference Wednesday.

A change of front on the part of the Turkish delegates was forecast while the conference was in session. A Turkish spokesman outside the auditorium said the Turkish position on the straits control would probably be found nearer to the Allied plan than to the Russian.

Delegate Barrere of France said the Allied proposition represented an attempt to solve the straits problem without infringing upon the sovereignty of Turkey or that of any country bordering upon the Black Sea. Ambassador Child set forth the views of the United States Independent of any other power. He said the United States holds that the straits and the Black Sea must be open to ships and warships of all nations in time of peace and war, and that it opposes any plan which would give one power control, just as it would in any other international waterway.

COUNTY SAVES $375 BY 2-YEAR BONDING PLAN

Surety bonds for the various officers of Outagamie county have been placed with Kaukauna agents, according to action taken by the finance committee of the county board. Last year all bonds were written by the American Surety company. Bonds now are for a term of two years, thereby saving the county $375. The amounts the county officers are bonded for are as follows: Treasurer, $100,000; clerk of court, $3,000; register of deeds, $1,000; sheriff, $2,500; district attorney, $1,000; surveyor, $500; coroner, $500.

Have Sip Of Cassina; It's Very Latest

Washington—Cassina before long may rank with tea and coffee as a beverage in American homes and a new industry which would benefit the south particularly, seems in prospect. W. G. Campbell, acting chief of the department of agriculture bureau of chemistry reported Wednesday to the secretary of agriculture some facts on the cassina which he says makes an excellent beverage.

"Investigations on a laboratory scale showed that a very delightful beverage resembling tea in many respects can be made from cassina, a wild plant that grows abundantly in the south Atlantic and Gulf States from Virginia to Texas, when the leaves of the plant are treated by processes similar to those used in curing tea," says Mr. Campbell. "The cassina plant has been used to a limited extent by Indians and during the Civil war when tea could not be obtained, by people of the southern states to make a beverage."

First there's a curious mixture of admiration for the aggressive personality of the distinguished visitor and wonder at the boldness of his appeal for American cooperation at a time when the dominant elements in the United States government were never more concerned about domestic problems to the exclusion of matters external. Then there's the odd attitude of the Democrats who it would be supposed would welcome Mr. Clemenceau as the exponent of international cooperation and as the champion of a policy on which Woodrow Wilson made his last stand in American politics.

DISAGREES WITH WILSON
Today Mr. Clemenceau and Mr. Wilson meet in the home of the former president. It's because they have so little in common that the Democrats find it difficult to act as the avowed champions of the Clemenceau mission.

The former president of France doesn't belong to the same school of thought on international affairs as does Mr. Wilson. He believes in offensive and defensive alliances and Mr. Wilson doesn't. He thinks strong military and naval preparation should be international so that peace may be guaranteed. In other words Mr. Clemenceau believes in a league to enforce peace and his objection to the League of Nations today is exact.

It was what it was three years ago. It has been launched—he doesn't think it has been enough. He doesn't regard article ten as binding enough. He doesn't see how any nation can be compelled to offer military or naval support for the provisions of the league.

Indeed, his interpretation of the league covenant is exactly opposite to that view by which men like Senator Hiram Johnson, Borah and others made a successful fight against American acceptance of the covenant. It is not even if the Wilson view of the covenant didn't interfere with national sovereignty and freedom of action had prevailed in this country, still Mr. Clemenceau would have been disappointed. His declaration that he favors American membership in the League of Nations as it is at present framed is merely a declaration in favor of half a loaf being better than none.

CONGRESS GETS FARM LOAN BILLS

Washington—Rural credits legislation said to have the approval of administration officials proposing to create a farm credits department as a part of the present farm loan system was introduced simultaneously in the senate and house Wednesday by Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin and Republican Anderson, Republican of Minnesota.

The two bills, similar in most particulars, make available for farm loans a total of $60,000,000 distributed equally among the 12 farm loan banks. The present government subscription to the 12 banks totals only $12,000,000. The banks would be authorized to rediscount farm paper having a maturity of from six months to three years.

U. S. ADMIRALS BOLDNESS OF FRENCH TIGER

Clemenceau And Wilson Will Meet Today At Washington

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1922 by the Post Pub. Co.
Washington—History has probably recorded no stranger pilgrimage than that of Georges Clemenceau to America's capital on this date. The atmosphere here is neither hostile nor friendly to the aged statesman who guided French policy in the making of the peace of Versailles.

First there's a curious mixture of admiration for the aggressive personality of the distinguished visitor and wonder at the boldness of his appeal for American cooperation at a time when the dominant elements in the United States government were never more concerned about domestic problems to the exclusion of matters external. Then there's the odd attitude of the Democrats who it would be supposed would welcome Mr. Clemenceau as the exponent of international cooperation and as the champion of a policy on which Woodrow Wilson made his last stand in American politics.

DISAGREES WITH WILSON
Today Mr. Clemenceau and Mr. Wilson meet in the home of the former president. It's because they have so little in common that the Democrats find it difficult to act as the avowed champions of the Clemenceau mission.

The former president of France doesn't belong to the same school of thought on international affairs as does Mr. Wilson. He believes in offensive and defensive alliances and Mr. Wilson doesn't. He thinks strong military and naval preparation should be international so that peace may be guaranteed. In other words Mr. Clemenceau believes in a league to enforce peace and his objection to the League of Nations today is exact.

It was what it was three years ago. It has been launched—he doesn't think it has been enough. He doesn't regard article ten as binding enough. He doesn't see how any nation can be compelled to offer military or naval support for the provisions of the league.

Indeed, his interpretation of the league covenant is exactly opposite to that view by which men like Senator Hiram Johnson, Borah and others made a successful fight against American acceptance of the covenant. It is not even if the Wilson view of the covenant didn't interfere with national sovereignty and freedom of action had prevailed in this country, still Mr. Clemenceau would have been disappointed. His declaration that he favors American membership in the League of Nations as it is at present framed is merely a declaration in favor of half a loaf being better than none.

STAND APART

So Mr. Clemenceau and Mr. Wilson stand as far apart today as they did in Paris except that the former premier would probably have to admit that the American president did know the American sentiment better than the French supposed, when he argued that even the league covenant was a marked departure from American traditional policy and that the whole thing would fail to win favor if the settlements between the nations at Versailles were unjust.

Since the Versailles conference, Mr. Wilson's productions in the informal conversations with Mr. Clemenceau have come true. The people have found many of the rigid provisions of the Versailles treaty unsatisfactory. Mr. Wilson accepted the treaty is written because he didn't want to see the negotiations prolonged and unrest stimulated—the world was crying for an early peace. And he accepted them also because he sincerely believed the Versailles treaty could be revised through the machinery of the League of Nations. Now it develops that France has prevented revision of the Versailles pact and the League of Nations has been powerless to change French policy.

The attitude here therefore is one of tolerant courtesy. The visit is more of a historic novelty than an affirmative influence.

SHANTUNG IS RETURNED TO CHINESE RULE

Japan And China Complete Settlement As Outlined By
Washington Parley

By Associated Press
Peking—China and Japan Wednesday completed settlement of the Shantung controversy as outlined by the terms of the Washington treaty. China agrees to pay Japan 40,000,000 yen for the Shantung railroad. The payment will be made in 15 year Chinese treasury notes bearing interest at 6 per cent.

In addition China pays Japan 16,000,000 yen for all public properties located in the Kiaow-shoo district. Civil and military administration will be turned over to China on Dec. 10 while the Shantung railway will be transferred to Chinese authority on Jan. 1.

China as a direct result of the Washington conference thus regains control of territory which she lost when it was seized by Germany in 1918.

RELEASE 'KING OF BOOTLEGGERS'

Four Kenosha Men Go Free As Result Of Governor's Pardon

By Associated Press
Milwaukee—Four Kenosha men, convicted of violating the Milwaukee law, pardoned Thanksgiving day by Governor Blaine, were released from the house of correction late Tuesday.

The men are Harry S. Gordon, termed "king of the bootleggers," Ben Loef, Edward Minkowski and Julius Klaus. Habeas corpus proceedings for the release of Gordon were dropped in circuit court Wednesday.

The men had been held since last Thursday by workhouse authorities, pending outcome of a controversy over the collection of their fines, which had been reduced by Governor Blaine. They were released after inspector William H. Mommson received a telegram from District Attorney Frank S. Symmonds of Kenosha, informing him that Kenosha would collect the fines.

Gordon had been sentenced to 18 months and fined $4,500 by Judge E. B. Holden, Racine. The other three were given six months each and fined $2,000 each.

All four had served ten months, Loef Minkowski and Klaus having started to serve out the additional time in lieu of paying their fines. A term of six years hung over Gordon if he failed to pay, the fine levied by Judge Holden.

COMRADES IN OTHER PLANES SEE TRAGEDY

Major In Fokker, Leading Formation, Hits Bomber With Five Men

By Associated Press
Newport News, Va.—Major Guy L. Gearhart of Leavenworth, Kan., Captain Benton A. Doyle of St. Louis, Mo., and four enlisted men were killed at Langley field Wednesday when a Martin bomber plane carrying five of them, and a Fokker scout machine piloted by Major Gearhart, collided about 250 feet in the air, both machines crashing to the earth in flames.

The enlisted men killed were Staff Sergeant Marsek, 3235 W. Forty-first st., Cleveland, O.; Private F. L. Blunka, 1018 Fry st., Chicago; Private Thomas Jordan, Oberlin, Ga.; Private Leon Bolos, Philadelphia.

The bomber, piloted by Captain Doyle, was leading a formation, and was making a banking when the Fokker arose in the air from a long take off. The smaller machine struck the bomber almost midship, cutting off the tail. Both planes hovered a moment and then broke into flames and crashed to earth.

Pilot Bolos leaped from the bomber as it neared the earth, but was fatally injured. He died while being placed in ambulance.

The accident occurred over the Hampton normal school farm adjoining the flying station. Several persons who rushed to the scene were badly injured while trying to extricate the men.

The five other machines in the formation led by Captain Doyle's plane effected quick landing but their occupants, with those already on the scene, were powerless before the flames.

MEMOIRS REVEAL CLASH OF KAISER AND HIS STAFF

By Associated Press
Berlin—The Kaiser's repeated interference with the plans of the German general staff during the mobilization days of 1914, adds to the surface time after time in the dramatic introductory chapter of Lieutenant General Count Von Moltke's memoirs, just published by his widow.

The impression given by the former chief of staff in his book is that emperor William was anxious to do all possible to avoid drawing England into the fray, and that contrary to the view of the general staff, he believed France would remain neutral in contemplated Russian hostilities. Thus the Kaiser is pictured as favoring a policy virtually ignoring the western front for the sake of waging war to the east in direct tradition to the plan of his military expert which had for years been based on the possibility of a campaign on both fronts.

TWO SIDES HAVE CASES FOR DAMAGES DISMISSED

Both complaints in action of the Green Bay Ice cream company vs. Funkhouser & Son for damages resulting from an automobile collision one mile east of Seymour on July 7, were dismissed by Judge A. M. Spencer in municipal court Tuesday afternoon.

The Ice cream company claimed $450 damages alleged to have been done to their Ford coupe driven by W. J. Flanagan employee. A complaint had been filed by the defendant asking $185.00 for damages said to be incurred by their Ford sedan in the collision.

GANFIELD TO TELL -WHAT IS TO BECOME OF CHRISTIANITY

Carroll College Head Thinks On Many Subjects Besides Politics

The next Sunday evening forum meeting at Lawrence Memorial chapel will bring one of the best known men in the state of Wisconsin to Appleton to talk on Christianity. Dr. W. A. Ganfield, president of Carroll college, is quoted in the press of Wisconsin and other places almost daily on a wide variety of subjects.

Dr. Ganfield's last address in Appleton was of a political nature when he was running for United States senator in the recent primaries. At that time he showed himself to be an able speaker and a keen thinker, but politics is only one of the many phases of modern life in which the college president has interested himself.

His topic for Sunday evening is "Will the World Outgrow Christianity?" a question which puzzles many people in this age when church attendance falls off as automobiles and moving pictures gain in popularity. He will bring to Appleton people the judgment of a Christian scholar on this subject in a way which shows that he has kept abreast with the modern movement of religious thought.

One new member of the executive committee will be elected Wednesday night and the sixth degree will be conferred.

ON THE SCREEN

AT THE ELITE

Mark Twain's humor is largely based on incongruity and contrast. "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," of which the special William Fox film version, now showing at the Elite Theatre, is crammed with examples. It is said to be the funniest thing Twain ever wrote, yet it contains a carefully reasoned argument.

Mark never was at a loss for an answer. One day he was telling a group of friends about a wonderful lake he had seen in Colorado.

"The water is so clear," he said, "that you could see a ten-cent piece on the bottom at a depth of one hundred fathoms."

A story silence followed. Mark glanced around.

"Well," he said, "I assure you that if you threw a ten-dollar bill into the lake it could plainly be seen on the surface."

LLOYD HAS THE "HUMAN TOUCH"

While patrons of the big motion picture theatres on Broadway, New York, show greater and greater eagerness for the Lloyd comedies, and each new production is welcomed everywhere as the outstanding picture event, the newspaper and magazine reviewers are giving more and more space to reasons why Harold Lloyd has gained such a remarkable hold on the public.

"Grandma's Boy" is now showing at Fischer's Appleton.

WENT THRU FENCE

An automobile following us when we were returning from Greenville Sunday afternoon crashed through the wooden fence which runs along the concrete highway near the Triangle school on the Hortonville road. The hubs of the front and rear wheels were caught under the bottom rail of the fence and four men worked quite a while before they could extricate the machine. The car was not seriously damaged.

THEY WON'T MIX

I spied today the result of a young man endeavoring to mix moonshine with gasoline. This happened on trunkline 47, about five miles south of Black Creek. After loading up with both the young man started to try out this hazardous mixture. When about 5 miles south of Black Creek the car (a Chevrolet touring) left the road and went into the ditch. He endeavored to drive it back onto the road. Before he succeeded the car met up with a concrete marker. Result, the radiator was dented, a bent axle, broken springs, a broken wheel and a ruined top and a badly bruised up young man, who is still alive.

SPOTTED AS A LIAR

Yesterday at the corner of State and College-ave my attention was drawn to a little boy who was asking a man to buy some Christmas seals. The man said, "Sonny, I haven't a cent to my name," then pulling out his handkerchief fifty cents rolled on the sidewalk. The man quickly picked up the coin and left.

DOG LIKED CANDY

Monday I went into a store in First ward and as I was waiting a lady and a dog came in. The door of the candy case happened to be open and the dog walked behind the counter, licked the top layer of a box of candy, and helped himself to a piece. Just at that moment his mistress saw him and called, "Peter, Peter come here." They both walked out of the store. The dog ate the piece of candy he had stolen and walked off.

A WISE OLD OWL

While going to the movies last night two very nice looking girls, also on their way there, passed Bolling's Drug store. One of them exclaimed, "Look at the owl, and he winked at me." A man walking behind was heard to say, "He is a wise old bird—he knows they are flappers."

MISSED THE CORNER

Monday evening I saw a Chevrolet touring car going west on Second-ave. The driver tried to turn on State-st but missed the corner and ran into a vacant lot. He backed out and drove as if nothing had happened.

TWAIN PICTURE PROVING GOOD LAUGH PRODUCER

"A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" is a laugh from beginning to end. This picture which will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday at Elite theatre, already has pleased hundreds of Appleton people.

A veteran theatregoer who also is a careful student of history sometimes to see the screen version of a literary favorite, but there is no offensive liberty taken with the story as told by the master humorist, Mark Twain. The introduction to the story is a tribute to the author whose ambition it was to leave a heritage of laughs to humanity.

The story is directly not based on the book, but is built around it so as to bring in many of the sidesplitting incidents. Harry C. Myers made an admirable Yankee and Pauline Starke played a very good lady-in-waiting. William V. Mong as Merlin, the magician, was a well cast character and Rosemary Theby as Queen Morgan le Fay was villainess and vamp, par excellence.

LEAVE YOUR USED CLOTHING AT SOME SCHOOL FOR NEEDY

Children In Near East Will Be Kept Warm With Gifts Made Here

If you cannot give money to the homeless people in Smyrna and other places in the Near East, would you be willing to give some of your castoff clothing and shoes?

It is expected that many people will grasp this opportunity to clothe ragged children exposed to the cold of the approaching winter, and arrangements therefore have been made by Appleton Women's club to gather in these garments for shipment to the Armenian area.

Mrs. Stephen Rosebush has been named chairman of the clothing committee and Miss Carrie Morgan has arranged to have all public schools used as bundle stations. The public is asked to deliver such articles as dresses, undergarments, coats, headwear, shoes and other serviceable apparel to their nearest school by Friday at the latest. Trucks will collect the things on Saturday and they will be prepared for shipment.

Mrs. V. H. Miskarin, who has worked in the relief stations in the Near East, is in Appleton presenting the needs to all the school pupils and others. She emphasizes the fact that children are in abject poverty, with hardly enough ragged clothes to cover their bodies, and that the death toll is sure to increase this winter if conditions are not met.

These clothes, worthless to people having them hanging in closets or attics, are like actual money to the relief workers, because otherwise donations of funds must be used for their purchase. The Rev. A. L. McMillan, county relief chairman, urges everybody to contribute their bundles at once.

SECRETARIES OF C. OF C. TO MEET

Wisconsin Association of Commercial Secretaries will hold its midwinter roundup in Milwaukee, Friday, Dec. 15, so all who attend may visit the Wisconsin Products exposition at the same time. The state winter fair will be in its second day then.

Appleton Chamber of Commerce has been invited by Chalmers B. Traver, of Milwaukee Association of Commerce and president of the state secretarial body to send representatives. The program is to include conferences, a luncheon at Milwaukee Athletic club as guests of Milwaukee Association of Commerce, an automobile tour, a reception to ladies and a visit to the exposition in the evening.

SEEK EMPLOYMENT FOR JOBLESS ARMY OFFICERS

Aid of the chamber of commerce has been asked by the commander of the Sixth corps area of the United States army to find employment for a number of officers who are to be discharged soon under the program of curtailing of forces.

FURS AND MYSTERY By A. CARSTENSEN

Canada furnishes us with the wolverine, an animal closely resembling a young bear except that it is much more ferocious and greedy. Aside from being fierce and forever hungry, it is the enemy of other fur-bearers and in the course of year devours many beavers and muskrats.

The Indian has long prized the strong, sharp snow-white claws of the wolverine, which it skillfully uses in catching its prey in the open or in digging the mouth of their homes.

A mature pelt measures from thirty-six to forty-eight inches in length, including the tail, which is covered with a dense fur and an abundance of long hairs. In winter the short fur is almost a true black, but at other seasons is reddish-brown on the sides. Though the animal's coloration of this fur is small, it is always very serviceable and, at times, very popular as a novelty.

Another novelty for is that of the spotted ringtail, called a cat because of its relation to the feline. This animal measures about thirty-five inches in length, including the tail, which is nearly a foot and one-half long, marked with alternating rings of black and white, eight of the rings being black.

The fur on all parts of the body is dotted with nearly circular dots, averaging one-half inch in diameter; the fur being soft and fairly abundant. It makes a good fur for the woman who likes something odd.

These two furs are "good" for a year or two at occasional times, so don't let any further recommend either of them to you unless you know that he is abreast of the fur fashions.

Beware of the Wolf in Sheep's clothing.

Best Part Of Holiday Show Behind Scenes

It isn't every person in Appleton nor even every reporter for the Post-Crescent who has a chance to see "Judge" Waterman, dean of Lawrence Conservatory of Music, backing out of a bright colored piece of cloth which looks like a good-sized laundry bag. A reporter inopportunely came into the conservatory as the dean was emerging from such a contrivance. The picture was captured by "Mickie" McKee who was dancing around the dean saying: "That's just great. I'll order a dozen."

The fact of the incident is that the dean and Mr. McKee were trying on the costumes for "The Pageant of the Nativity" which their choir will present as a Christmas music festival. The laundry bag effects are none other than the costumes for the shepherds.

DIRECTORY FAKIRS OPERATE IN STATE

Milwaukee Man Warns Business Houses To Learn Veracity Of Salesmen

Business houses all over Wisconsin are being warned by Chalmers B. Traver, Milwaukee, president of the Wisconsin association of Commercial Secretaries, to be on the lookout for directory swindlers who are understood to be operating in this state.

In a letter to Appleton Chamber of Commerce Mr. Traver says that directory swindlers in the country for the last 12 months amount to more than $250,000,000. The swindlers go about with "dummy" copies, obtain the advertisements and cash and then disappear.

The Milwaukee man says reputable legitimate directory publishers do not demand money in advance, and that most of these companies are well known. He advises all who are approached to get in touch with the chamber of commerce and ascertain the reliability of the proposition.

MAN WHO RAISES MILLIONS COMING HERE ON MONDAY

Dan Weigle, Chamber Of Commerce Speaker, Is Most Noted Promoter

A man who can raise a million dollars for civic and commercial enterprises must be a person of power, brains and personality.

Such a man exists and he will be in Appleton next Monday. He is Dan E. Weigle, St. Paul, Minn., who is to speak at the chamber of commerce forum dinner at 6:15 in the Sherman house. His subject will be "What's the Modern Chamber of Commerce For?"

Mr. Weigle was secretary of St. Paul Association of Commerce and his ability in building that organization attracted attention of many cities which called for his help. He devotes his whole time to promoting of civic enterprises now; and is credited with having placed more than a million dollars in the coffers of commercial and other organizations.

It is expected that a flood of reservation cards will reach the chamber of commerce office in the next day or two from the members who want to hear this extraordinary speaker. He probably is the "headliner" of the year's program. Members are urged to bring their wives.

At the Children's Home in Newburyport, Mass., there are an average of sixty children under the loving care of the Sisters of Charity.

In a recent signed statement the Sister in charge said: "We cheerfully endorse Father John's Medicine because in our home it has become indispensable. We use it, not only for coughs and colds but also as a builder. We tell our friends that we would not be without it. We have used it with great success and find it to have no equal as a builder."

(Signed) The Home for Destitute Children, Sisters of Charity, Newburyport, Mass.

CAN'T GIVE SATURDAY HOLIDAY TO P. O. MEN

The order issued by Hubert Work, postmaster general, authorizing postmasters in the United States to grant Saturday half holidays to postal employees the entire year where possible, cannot be carried out here, Postmaster W. H. Zuehlke announced Tuesday. The order can have effect only in the larger postoffices of the country, he said. To grant half holidays to even a partial number of employees on Saturdays would necessitate closing the office and that itself would burden the men with additional work on the following Monday, he said.

is which called for his help. He devotes his whole time to promoting of civic enterprises now; and is credited with having placed more than a million dollars in the coffers of commercial and other organizations.

It is expected that a flood of reservation cards will reach the chamber of commerce office in the next day or two from the members who want to hear this extraordinary speaker. He probably is the "headliner" of the year's program. Members are urged to bring their wives.

Sonata Best Of Numbers By Organist

Prof. Taber And Mrs. Waterman Delight In First Faculty Recital

H. J. Stewart's sonata based on the poem of Oliver Wendell Holmes "The Chambered Nautilus" as played by Frank A. Taber, Jr. in recital at Lawrence Memorial chapel on Tuesday evening was the most interesting number of the evening. The sonata, which is comparatively new, suggests the splendid style of the poem in many passages. Prof. Taber played it with fine regard for its musical possibilities and with excellent technical command.

Marlan Ramsay Waterman assisted with the program and it was said by many in the audience that she never sang better. Her tone quality and musical style were splendid. The audience seemed especially pleased with "Corals," "My Heart is a Lute," "Mother," and "The Infant Jesus." Miss Irma Sherman was the accompanist.

Other numbers played by Prof. Taber, which were especially well received were "Choral in A minor" by Cesar Franck, "Song of India" by Rimsky-Korsakoff and "A Toccata" by Rogers. This was the first conservatory faculty recital of the season.

CASH WAR STAMPS NOW, P. O. URGES

Avoidance Of Christmas Rush Possible If Holders Act Early

To avoid the holiday postoffice congestion Postmaster William H. Gustke has made an announcement urging holders of 1918 war savings stamps that are to be redeemed or exchanged for United States treasury savings certificates on Jan. 1 to present them for payment or exchange immediately.

By so doing the stamp holders will save themselves and also the postal employees considerable delay. The Christmas rush will soon be on and from that time until the first of the year little attention can be paid to the redemption or exchange of stamps.

Persons who wish to redeem their stamps for cash may do so now, but they will receive their check direct from the federal reserve bank after the first of the year. Formerly the postoffice redeemed the stamps from funds on hand. On account of the large number to be redeemed, this method has been discontinued since Nov. 15.

Considerable work is entailed by the exchange of war savings stamps as duplicates must be made of each treasury savings certificate issued, the owner receiving one, the postoffice one and the federal reserve bank the third.

Registered certificates may be redeemed at any postoffice or bank. Registered certificates are ordinarily to be presented to the postoffice of registration, but the local postoffice will willingly forward the stamps to the office where they were registered. Treasury certificates are issued in denominations of $20.00, $50 and $100 and yield 4 per cent interest compounded annually.

STUDENTS WORKING FOR LARGER SCHOOL

Young People Trying To Interest Public In Building Addition

Kaukauna—Great events are transpiring within the walls of the Kaukauna high school building. Fourteen or fifteen committees are at work. It has been learned also that several classes in English are enlisted in the work.

This is no conspiracy to strike for more heat or shorter hours, merely the beginning of an organized attempt to convince the city of the necessity of an auditorium and gymnasium as part of the new high school building. Since the Kaukauna Women's club, the Nicolet school Parent-Teachers association and other organizations have declared themselves interested, the student body has taken up the cry and will endeavor to enlist the cooperation of several municipal organizations.

The campaign will continue for several days, probably for a few weeks. Plans are being made to wind up the whole affair by holding a big program in the opera house. It will be free to the public.

MUSICAL STARS TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Kaukauna—No acts are being reserved for the musical entertainment at the Kaukauna post No. 41 American legion Thursday evening in the city auditorium. The program is scheduled to begin at 8:15. WHEAT MART GETS SETBACK, RALLIES

By Associated Press

Chicago—Largely in response to lower quotations at Liverpool the wheat market here underwent a moderate setback in price Wednesday during early dealings. An apparent lull in export demand, together with something of a letup in the domestic flour trade acted also as a bearish factor.

Subsequently, the market rallied with many traders looking for bullish developments in regard to farm legislation and plans for government aid in financing food exports. Most of the price gains which were scored, however, came after definite word was received that farm credit bill has been introduced into the bureau at Washington.

AMERICANISM TALKS BEFORE H. S. STUDENTS

Kaukauna—R. N. Ratsch of this city, was the first speaker to talk before the student body each morning, school Monday morning in connection with national educational week which is being observed. He spoke on "Americanism" and showed how an American's attitude toward foreigners affected their Americanism. He said that to educate foreigners as good American citizens, it is necessary to treat them with respect.

Committee have been appointed to arrange a program for every day. A speaker has been secured to speak before the student body each morning.

School Found High Degree Of Public Spirit In City

Beatrice Game, With Offers Of Help, Was Lesson In Cooperation

Although the Beatrice game is now but a victorious memory in the minds of Appleton people and Appleton high school students, the spirit of cooperation between town and school still lingers in the conversations heard among the high school faculty, members, he way in which Appleton people and Appleton business firms got behind the team and pushed is one of the biggest things which has happened for years according to Lee C. Rasey and Leon C. High and other members of the faculty who came in close touch with preparations for the game.

AD CLUB HELPED
The first definite evidence of the growing spirit of cooperation for the big Wisconsin-Nebraska game was the letter which Appleton Advertising club sent to Mr. Rasey telling him that a committee composed of H. L. Post, Ralph Gee and Gerald Galpin was ready to help in advertising the game. As the game drew nearer, the chamber of commerce committee of which Louis Donini is head offered its services.

Then the Rotary club made preparations for its banquet for the team and showed a splendid spirit of support. Rotarians saw to it that their team at the train and that they were courteously received everywhere. St. C. Rasey was able to get practically all the 1st Army band members to play down town and at the game. He needed four musicians more and secured two of these from Green Bay and two from a military unit at Hartford. Another big thing in the spirit of cooperation was the sending of the Oshkosh band here after Appleton high school defeated Oshkosh high school football team so recently.

MANY WORKED
Advertising the game so extensively took the work of many individuals, according to Mr. High. He says that the school is grateful to H. L. Post, who planned a great deal of the publicity, to the Post-Crescent advertising department which got the backing for all the football spreads in the paper, to Joseph Brandt, letter who made many of the large posters, to Schlitz brothers, Vermulen's Marmon Auto company, Pettibone-Penbody company and Matt Schmidt and Son for the use of their bill boards in the country. The city council made it possible for the football to be played on each lamp post. Schlitz brothers took care of the entire safe of reserved seats and other places handled tickets for the convenience of those who wanted to buy in advance. Many others helped to make the game a success.

"Sportsmanship is one of the greatest things which we can develop in high school students," said Mr. High. "The students soon forget the class work we teach them, but the spirit of a game like the Beatrice contest lives with them always. This spirit of cooperation is easiest to get in athletics, but we are going to work hard to keep the same friendly feeling with the town in other things."

ARREST ASHLAND BAKER; DRANK TOO MUCH "MOON"

Fred Miller of Ashland has been given opportunity to repent at leisure in the county jail, following his conviction for "tanking up" on high-powered moonshine. Miller is a baker by trade. But Detective John Duval could not see how a bottle of the liquor could be of any use in the man's trade. Miller was found in a shaky condition on Monday afternoon and was sentenced Tuesday morning.

ASK FIRMS TO AID IN EARLY MAILING

Postoffice Gives Heavy Users Of Parcel Post List Of Suggestions

Appleton business men are being urged to cooperate with the postoffice in promoting the "mail early" campaign preceding Christmas. Placards will be distributed among the merchants giving the following advice on the mailing of Christmas parcels: "Mail early; wrap securely; make address plain and complete; supply return address; parcels may be marked, 'Not to be opened until Christmas.'"

Circulars also are being mailed to heavy users of parcel post reminding them that if a package is worth sending, it is worth wrapping and packing well. The articles should be wrapped with tough paper, the instructions say, and should be tied with stout cord. An address should also be attached inside the parcel. Articles liable to be broken should be enclosed in corrugated paper or wooden boxes and packed in excelsior. If parcels are fragile or perishable they should be so marked, conspicuously. "When ready to mail," the instructions say, "give it the once-over for address, inside address, return address, stamps, wrapper, packing. Mail it early. Insure it."

Unhappy Kids Will See Santa At Christmas

Girl scouts and camp fire girls again will have their Christmas party for children between the ages of four and ten years, it was decided at a meeting of their leaders with boy scout group heads at Appleton Women's club on Monday.

The matter of a community Christmas tree was not definitely decided and H. P. Buck, boy scout executive was asked to find out what could be done. It was the suggestion of the leaders that a tree be placed in the square across from the Sherman house and that a program of Christmas carols be arranged.

The guests of the girls' organizations at the party will be those children whom the scouts and camp fire girls feel will not have a happy Christmas. Santa Claus will be at the party to give out stockings and popcorn balls. Other details will be worked out at a meeting of the leaders at Appleton Women's club at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Reducing the Hazard

"The enlightened employer interests himself in the conservation of the health of his employees and in their safety, so far as he can provide them," says the Chicago Tribune.

For many years the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has followed this plan as a part of its established policy.

This Company maintains an exceptionally high standard of safety insurance. It not only provides safety devices but by encouraging the organization of safety committees in all of its refineries, it has been successful in reducing accidents in its refineries to a point which actually is below that of many businesses naturally less hazardous.

As an example of its efforts in this direction is cited the fact that all Standard Oil Company (Indiana) refineries are provided with elaborate fire-fighting devices, of which live steam and chemicals are notable refinements.

The Directors of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) recognize that an employee who believes himself to be well-treated and secure is a better worker and is more interested in giving full service both to the Company and to the public than is the employee who lacks this feeling of security.

The management of this Company believes that every constructive measure for the benefit of its employees is a definite factor in lowering the cost of doing business, in securing greater efficiency, and ultimately lowering prices of its products to the consumer.

Hazard reduction is but one item, though an important one, in the Company's complete program of attention to the well-being of its employees. Other items include liberal compensation, good working conditions, steady work, and insurance in so far as is possible against unemployment. In addition this Company has devised an annuity system to provide for the protection of those who have grown old in its service.

The efforts of the management to provide ways and means of eliminating the dangers of a highly hazardous occupation is reflected in the enthusiasm of the workers and the whole-hearted endorsement of 26,560 stockholders, not one of whom owns as much as 10 percent of the total.

The Surety of Purity

There are no miracles in cooking. What goes into the food must inevitably come out.

Even the baking perfection that results from the use of Royal Baking Powder is no miracle.

It is simply the result of absolute purity entering the food—and emerging again.

Royal is made from Cream of Tartar derived from grapes.

Surprises galore featured the playing of the Appleton City Bowling league Tuesday night, Tainbow Gardens lost their place to Arcaides No. 2 as the result of the defeat in the hands of Arcaides No. 1. However, the present league leaders will meet some stiff opposition next week and unless they are able to nab a victory, first place honors may go to any of the next three quints.

The game of interests was between the Elks Imperials and Olympics. The Imperials showed real class by toppling over 2,856 pins. The Olympics, though doing fairly well, not live up to expectations on their home alleys.

KUNITZ IS HIGH MAN

Kunitz was the star for the Elks Imperials as well as rolling the highest score in the league. He bowled 619. Another good score was chalked down by Dawson who was second highest for the evening with 588 pins. Arcaides No. 1, bowling on their home alleys, outscored the Rainbow Gardens by taking three straight. The F. O. E. 574 team, which is tied for the cellar championship with the F. O. E. 574, handed the Hoffman Construction Company team a surprise by taking two games. The match was rolled on the Elks alleys.

ROLL LOW SCORES

Arcaides No. 2 and the F. O. E. 574 rolled rather low scores on Eagle alleys. The Arcaides No. 2, however, managed to wipe out the Eagles.
